Everyone at the party will be so surprised when they see this incinerating

Darling...
Come here for a second
Okay...
I'm going now...

My, my...
What is it about?
How does this look?
What, the room of mirrors again?

That looks good. Is it in fashion right now?
Look at what these clothes do

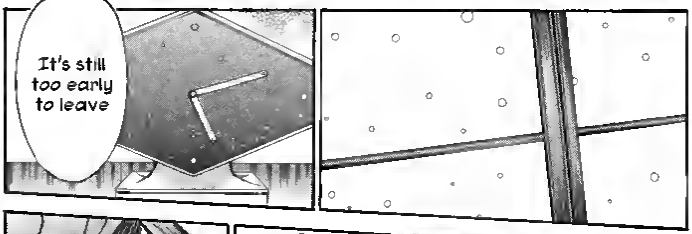
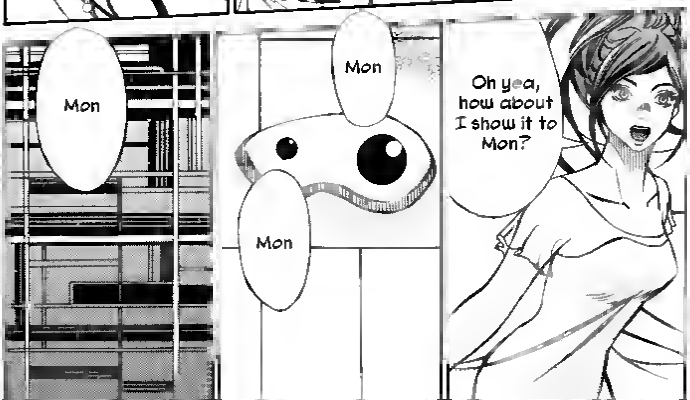
I'm so happy
They're pretty, right...



It's still too early to leave

Yes, but I wanted to try it on



Mon

Darling---
I'm here
I wonder what just happened
There's no way that this could have happened

Damn, now my sunflowers will wilt too
Even if you ask me, I have no idea
Everything has stopped working. What should we do?
Everything has stopped working, including the TV, the radio, and the phone
Then we can't talk to anyone else
Is it just us?

Yeah
It's not just us, but the entire city
It's like we're spaceships that can't find anywhere to land
I don't like this
Don't you have anything else to wear?
It's cold...

I incinerated my previous set of clothes this morning, and I only have these underwear
You should have saved some
It's too late for that now
No one keeps old things after getting new things through the delivery pipe
And no one knew that this would happen
It's going to get fixed in no time

Snow... makes a sound when it falls, huh...
I'm scared ...

I'll go get it
There's a pocket radio in the car in the under-ground garade
I know
Come back quickly

I got it
ハァハァ
Can you hear anything?
ガシ ガシ

No way
I listened to it when I was out for a drive two days ago
Maybe it's broken...
Then,
all of the broadcast stations are...
CLASSIC RADIO

Hey.. let's go to our neighbors
But, how do we get there?
The roads aren't powered, so cars can't move
If we try to walk, we'll freeze to death when we open the doors
And even if we get there they're facing the same thing as us
So cold
Everything we be back to normal soon
Then what should we do?

I'm hungry
Close your eyes...
We can only sit and wait here
I turned on all of the faucets, but nothing came out

Let's fall asleep quietly like this Yeah, me too...
So sleepy ...
It's a night-mare
Once we wake up, everything will be back to normal
Yeah..
and the perfume, right?
The party
Mon has fur, so he's fine
What happened to Mon? Is it freezing in some room?
